DAY 4 BEIJING TO HANOI- HANOI OLD QUARTER TOUR & WATER PUPPET SHOW

This morning you will be transferred to the airport for your flight to Hanoi. Upon your arrival in Noi Bai

Airport, our driver will pick you up for your tour in Hanoi's old quarter where you will experience traditional street life. You will also have the opportunity to watch a Water Puppet show.

DAY 5 HANOI- HALONG BAY

09:00 – 09:30: Your air-conditioned transfer vehicle will collect you from your hotel in Hanoi and convey you to Hai Phong at approximately 11:30am.<>> 12:00: You will be taken aboard our support vessel and travel from the wharf via the bay to board our luxurious craft, Era Cruise. You will be welcomed aboard and greeted with a complimentary drink. Our friendly and professional crew will conduct a compulsory safety procedure session and then you are free to check into your cabin and freshen up. We encourage you to explore our luxuriously-appointed ship then watch the magical landscape cruise past.<>> 13:15: A special lunch of fresh seafood and an assortment of appetizing delicacies will be served. You will be enchanted when decadently dining on our luxury junk, our lavish interpretation of a traditional Vietnamese boat. Life just doesn't get better than this! We then set sail for Lan Ha Bay, passing Da Chong islet where you can see an ancient lighthouse built by the French over a century ago.<>> 15:00: The final part of the cruise takes us through the Cua Van area to Lan Ha Bay (part of Halong Bay). The 300 or so karst islands and limestone outcrops of Lan Ha are stunning with their pristine, snow-white beaches. You can explore Ba Trai Dao beach or Tra Bau area via kayaks or immerse yourself in the crystal clear waters.<>> 17:00: It's time to return to your lavish liner and cruise to your evening accommodation.<>> 17:30 – 18:30: Who doesn't love happy hour? Our bar offers a wide range of wine, beer and liqueurs and is always a welcome sight for guests after a day sailing on the Bay. You can order an indulgent spa service, watch movies, go squid ?shing or simply relax on our roof top deck under the cover of a brightly illuminated sky.

DAY 6 HALONG BAY TO HANOI

06:30: The morning is the best time of the day on Lan Ha Bay. You might like to head to the upper deck to participate in our daily Tai Chi sessions or relax with an early morning cup of tea, coffee or juice to watch the stunning scenery unfold before you.<>> 07:00: A light breakfast of pastries, tea and coffee will be served in our restaurant.<>> 7:30 - 9:15: The final stage of your trip is to be taken through the mysterious caves and amongst the remote islets via local rowing boats. The breath-taking beauty of this World Heritage region will certainly impress you. Following this, you will journey back to the main ship.<>> 09:30: It's time to check out of your cabin as we draw closer to the mainland. After a ?nal early brunch and a last farewell from our crew at 11:30, you will board our transfer boat and head back to the wharf where you will be met by your return trip vehicle to transfer you to Hanoi.<>> 12:10-12:30: Now you can board the luxury van and return to Hanoi.<>>

DAY 7 HANOI- HO CHI MINH CITY TOUR - BOARD RV LAN DIEP

This morning you will be transferred to the airport for your flight to Ho Chi Minh City. On arrival in Ho Chi Minh City enjoy a tour of the city: Reunification palace, Notre Dame cathedral and Central Post office. We board our ship and then have a welcome cocktail and dinner. Overnight on board in Ho Chi Minh City.

DAY 8 HO CHI MINH CITY- CU CHI TUNNELS- CHAO GAO

Today we visit the Cu Chi Tunnels to see the underground tunnel network constructed by Vietnamese fighters during the struggle for independence. Home to around 10,000 people for several years, it took about 25 years to build the underground city. <>>The tunnel system was an excellent way for the Vietcong to move around the countryside undetected by the Americans. <>>Enjoy a scenic drive through the picturesque villages. On arrival we will watch a short introductory video before exploring the Cu Chi Tunnels, the most famous battlegrounds in the world. We will explore the complex tunnel system and view many craters left from B52 bombing raids. <>>After that we can travel try firing real bullets at the shooting range or go souvenir shopping. We have lunch onboard before our afternoon visit of the National History museum then a visit to a lacquerware factory. <>>We return on board and set sail for the navigation channel of Chao Gao. Dinner and overnight on board and we drop anchor and moor for the night at Nha Be.

DAY 9 CHAO GAO - MY THO - VINH LONG - CAI BE - SA DEC

Very early this morning, we continue our cruise to My Tho along the magnificent Chao Gao Canal, which passes from the Saigon River to the Mekong Delta. <>>The Delta is made up of four main arms and thousands of canals, both large and small. <>>We have breakfast as we arrive in My Tho. The town is named after the river My Tho which means “beautiful reed”, and it is peaceful and prosperous. <>>Known for its many vegetable gardens, and its fruit orchards, the climate here is hot and pleasant all year long. <>>The surrounding countryside includes one of the most luxuriant gardens in Vietnam with coconut, banana, mango and longan trees. We visit My Tho islands in small boats. Along the maze that makes up the network of small canals, pretty country villages appear and we see the local craftsmen at work. <>>We return on board for lunch and continue our cruise to Vinh Long and Cai Be. <>>The town is located in the middle of the Delta region, between two arms of the Mekong. <>>We set off in small boats through the arroyos and gardens which lead to Cai Be's colonial church. Vinh Long, a land made rich by alluvium, is the country of mandarins and oranges. <>>All of life is organised around the water and we see houses built on stilts and hundreds of small boats that criss-cross in all directions. We then set sail for Sa Dec. Dinner and overnight stop at our mooring point.

DAY 10 SA DEC

Early this morning we visit Sa Dec, famous for its horticulture and known as the “Garden of the Cochin Chine” in colonial times. We have a tour of the small town where a few colonial mansions are still in existence. Discover the local market and visit the former dwelling place of Huynh Thuy Le, former lover of the French novelist Marguerite Duras who spent part of her childhood in Sa Dec. <>> We return on board for a hearty breakfast and continue our cruise to Chau Doc, a town at the border between Cambodia and Vietnam which became part of Vietnamese territory some 300 years ago. <>> We have lunch on board and arrive in Chau Doc in the early afternoon. Situated in the heart of a gigantic grid of rice fields, the city of Chau Doc embraces both banks of the Mekong and the floating farms overspill into the waters. Chau Doc is a very prosperous town which developed around fishing and farming. Inside the town, a few colonial buildings with their old fashioned charm still remain. <>>The market which surrounds them is the vibrant heart of the city and a multitude of colours. Transfer by small boat to visit a Cham village, a village of silk weavers and fish farms. Dinner and overnight stop in Chau Doc.

DAY 11 CHAU DOC - PHNOM PENH

We spend the day afloat today, first heading for the Cambodian border, where we complete customs during the morning and continue our journey. <> Lunch and dinner are taken on board as we arrive towards the end of the day in Phnom Penh. After dinner we have a “tuk tuk” trip, a motorised tricycle which is the traditional mode of transport in Phnom Penh. We moor for the night in the port of Phnom Penh.

DAY 12 PHNOM PENH CITY TOUR

Founded in 1434, the capital of Cambodia retains much of its colonial charm, thanks to the rehabilitation of part of its architectural heritage. <> We visit the Silver Pagoda, constructed in wood in 1892 then rebuilt in 1962, and the Royal palace, symbolic heart of the nation and one of the finest examples of Cambodian architecture in classical Khmer style. <> Then we visit the National museum housing the Fine Arts museum, built in 1917 by the French in traditional Khmer architectural style. We have lunch in a local restaurant and this afternoon we have the option to visit the Tuol Svay Prey S21 school, former centre of detention, torture and execution used by the Khmer Rouge during the civil war. There is free time in the “Central Market” - crammed full with all types of businesses. <> This evening we have a Apsara dance show by student dancers and musicians. Dinner and overnight on board, in the port of Phnom Penh.

DAY 13 KOH CHEN - KAMPONG TRALACH - KAMPONG CHHNANG

We set sail early morning, have breakfast on board before we visit Koh Chen, a small village where the inhabitants are experts in silverwork and copper work. Here are made the ornaments and decorations used during traditional ceremonies in the pagoda or for weddings. <> Visit the private school of Mr. Thom Umson, a bright French teacher. <> We have lunch on board and arrive in Kampong Tralach to visit the beautiful Vihara of the Wat Kampong Tralach Leu Pagoda. <> We cross through the village of Kampong Tralach by oxcart to reach the pagoda on a small path running perpendicular to the river amidst a magnificent landscape of rice fields. <> The Vihara dates back to the beginning of last century and has many magnificent wall paintings which are starting to suffer from the effects of time. <> Completely isolated in the middle of the rice fields, the pagoda is quite unassuming and does not receive many visitors, so its isolation makes it a truly magnificent spot. We return on board and continue our cruise to Kampong Chhnang. Dinner and overnight stop.

DAY 14 KAMPONG CHHNANG - LAKE TONLE

We have breakfast on board and then visit Kampong Chhnang. Located some 90km from Phnom Penh, the town of Kampong Chhnang is one of the largest fishing ports on the Tonle Sap. Here they also have many fish farms. <> The region is best known for its fine traditional pottery which is a major source of revenue for the entire country, and the region's very name Kampong Chhnang means “the port of the pottery” in Khmer. <> We visit a traditional grove of palm trees and taste some palm sugar before a visit to a traditional pottery. <> Next we visit a floating village using small local boats. All the buildings here are afloat - the school, the shops and so on, and life develops along the canal network. <> We return on board for lunch then continue our cruise to lake Tonle Sap, the largest freshwater lake in southeast Asia which forms the heart of the hydraulic system of the Mekong. Cocktail and gala dinner tonight. Overnight stop.

DAY 15 DISEMBARK RV LAN DIEP- SIEM REAP

We spend the morning cruising, taking breakfast on board. Depending on the water levels, we cross the Tonle

Sap lake on board the RV Lan-Diep. <>We arrive in the port of Siem Reap. You will be transferred to your hotel and the rest of the day is at leisure.

DAY 16 ANGKOR SUNRISE TOUR

Today you will have an early pick up from your hotel and be driven to the Angkor Wat complex to view the sunrise over the magnificent temples. <>You will have plenty of time to take photos. You will be taken back to your hotel for breakfast. In the afternoon we will set off to explore Siem Reap with a tour of the city.

DAY 17 ANGKOR THOM & ANGKOR WAT

Morning: After breakfast, you will visit The Southern Gate of Angkor Thom, the famous Bayon, Baphuon, and Phimeanakas temples, plus Terraces of the Elephant and Leper King. Lunch will be at a famous local restaurant.<><> Afternoon: Visit Ta Prohm then explore the Angkor Wat temple, the 7th Wonder of the Ancient World. You will climb up to Bakheng Hill to watch the sunset over Angkor Wat and the surrounding area.

DAY 18 SIEM REAP DEPARTURE

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel today before we transfer you to the airport for your flight home.
